WHAT YOUR donation MEANS TO DAVIS STREET

For more than 48 years, Davis Street has helped low income families of the Eden Area and its surrounding communities improve their quality of life through short and long term assistance. We offer a comprehensive safety net that helps clients navigate their journey to physical, mental, and financial well-being.

5:30 PM Cocktails
6:30 PM Dinner
7:30 PM Dessert

A Night in Havana will raise critically needed funds to support all of our programs

- Primary Care Clinic - licensed Federally Qualified Health Center clinic offering medical care, dental, optometry, and behavioral health services.
- Food Pantry - provides groceries to families and seniors in need, up to two times per month.
- Clothing Program - from tennis shoes to jackets to small household items.
- Children Services - quality, affordable childcare to nearly 1,300 children through the parental choice voucher program (APP) and our 5 licensed childcare centers.
- Housing Resources - connecting clients to housing and utility assistance.
- Stepping Stones Growth Center - programs for individuals with developmental disabilities.
