

Warm Greetings as we enter this reflective season of Advent!

We invite you and your family to a shared reading of Karl Konig's play "A Christmas Celebration," Thursday, December 28, at 3:00 PM at Spindlewood Kinder Cottage, 105 Proctor Road, Lincolnville, Maine 04849. Scripts will be provided. Please RSVP for a script. Finger foods welcomed.

Dr. Karl Konig, founder of the Camphill Movement in Scotland, brought forth this play in 1941, and it has been kept alive and meaningful in communities ever since. His plays have recently been compiled and published by Floris Books as Plays for the Festivals of the Year.

We will use this work to explore the Cycle of the Year and the Festivals in our Winter Course of Studies in Anthroposophy, reading a play together each time we meet.

Seven Sundays, 2:30-4:30 PM, January 14, 21, 28, February 4, 11, 25, and March 4. Please save the dates. Registration information to follow.

You may contact us at studiesinanthroposophy@gmail.com

-Cheryl Martine, Sarah McBrian, Bridget Qualey, Susan Silverio