

Summaries of The Tallest Tale Ever Told.

Sally Ann Thunder Ann Whirlwind was born into a family of nine brothers. She wanted to do great things, so she left her brothers and went out on her way. She helped people and ran into some obstacles, like alligators and more. Eventually, Sally Ann met Davy Crockett and helped get his head out of the tree. Davy grew madly in love with Sally Ann. -Vincent

Once there was a girl named Sally Ann Thunder Ann Whirlwind (a name her nine brothers came up with). Every day there was a different chore, except for Sunday. Sunday was the day of rest. On Sally Ann's 14th birthday she decided to leave home and find out what she was meant to do. So she went into the woods and helped a bunch of animals. Eventually, Sally met Davy Crockett, who had gotten his head stuck in the crook of a tree. Sally tied a bunch of snakes together to make a rope and she used the rope to bend the tree so Davy could get out. Finally, they decided to get married. -Tigger
