

Network Connections

March 2018

Network Connections shares updates and information on workforce development initiatives to strengthen your workforce in retail, hospitality, and tourism.

In Like a Lion: The RHT Talent Network Marches Forward!

We're Marching forward and making progress toward our 2018 goal to serve even more businesses in southern New Jersey committed to developing a highly-skilled workforce. The Retail, Hospitality and Tourism Talent Network is representative of amusement, beverage, gaming, hotel, realty, restaurant, retail and tourism companies. We're expanding our reach and want more businesses to join us.

Through our Targeted Industry Partnerships (TIPs) in the Coastal, Delaware River and Central regions, RHTTN South has developed employer-driven workforce solutions to address the challenges we all face in training, hiring and retaining those workers.

In February alone, our Central TIP meeting featured 3 new pilot programs implemented through funding that we make available to you. And our Delaware River TIP WebEx featured a presentation by Gamelearn, a game-based platform used by more than 1,000 companies worldwide.

February also saw us developing workforce strategies with the Cape May County Chamber of Commerce's Tourism and Economic Development Committee, the Culinary Coalition at Cathedral Kitchen, and the Atlantic County Workforce Development Board. And we're very proud of our new Retail, Hospitality and Tourism Industry Workforce Report 2017, available in this newsletter in Flipbook form.

There's more: we've heard from you that fast-moving tech trends facing our industry are a key challenge that also brings opportunity. You'll want to join us for our Small Business Technology Panel at Stockton University on May 1st. And we'll see you at our upcoming Targeted Industry Partnership meetings on 3/28, 4/11 and 4/19.

Send us news on YOUR 2018 goals. We'd love to hear from you.
