Williamstown Bank Promotes New Assistant Vice President/HR Officer

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

{Williamstown, WV} – The Board of Directors of Williamstown Bank recently announced the promotion of Rosanne M. Deem to Assistant Vice President/HR Officer and Corporate Secretary.

Rosanne M. Deem began with Williamstown Bank as a part-time teller in 2002. She was Teller Supervisor until 2004 and then worked in the loan department as a Loan Processor where she gained useful knowledge about the lending process. In 2013 she became the Administrative Assistant to the President, a role which has provided her knowledge in areas including computer systems, software, human resources, and other critical bank functions. Rosanne attended Brigham Young University and completed the WV School of Banking in 2006. She is actively involved with the Williamstown Elementary PTA, serving as Treasurer for the past nine years. She is the Organist/Choir Pianist for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Marietta, serves on the Partners in Education Committee at the Bank, and is actively involved in the community outreach of the Bank Relay for Life, Partners in Education, and the Community Picnic. Rosanne resides in Williamstown with her three daughters, Siara, Kayla, and Lauren.

Sharon Anderson, President and CEO says, “The Bank is fortunate to have someone of Rosanne’s talent as a part of our Management team. The Board is pleased to acknowledge the promotion and hard work of Rosanne at both the bank and community level.”

Williamstown Bank is a $165 million community bank with offices in Williamstown, Parkersburg and their newest location in Lubeck.
