Sarah Ward, M.S., CCC/SLP and Co-Director of Cognitive Connections as over 20 years of experience in diagnostic evaluations, treatment and case management of children, adolescents and adults with a wide range of developmental and acquired brain-based learning difficulties and behavioral problems not limited to but including Attention Deficit Disorder, Verbal Learning Disabilities, Non-Verbal Learning Disabilities, Asperger Syndrome, Traumatic Brain Injury, and Acquired Brain Injury. Her interest is in the assessment and treatment of executive function deficits. Sarah also provides consultation and expert witness testimony regarding the symptoms and functional presentation of deficits associated with brain-based learning disabilities and the appropriateness of academic placement and treatment programs. She became a specialist in the assessment and rehabilitation of traumatic brain injury with an emphasis on the treatment of executive functions. She subsequently began to train graduate students in speech and language pathology, medical and special education professionals on the symptoms and treatment methods to improve the language, cognitive, executive function and social skills of brain-based disorders.
