The Newmarket School District Is Hiring

The Newmarket School District is hiring for two positions for the 2025-26 school year: a Special Education Teacher Case Manager and a School Psychologist. Both roles require specific certifications and offer competitive salaries and benefits. The Special Education Teacher position requires a Bachelor's degree and NH Special Education certification, with a starting salary of $46,751. The School Psychologist position requires a Master's degree or higher in School Psychology and NH Department of Education certification, with a starting salary of $50,343. Both positions have an anticipated start date of July 1, 2025, and the application review for the School Psychologist begins today, March 28, 2025, while the review for the Special Education Teacher begins on April 4, 2025. Interested candidates should visit the Newmarket School District website to learn more and apply.
www.newmarket.k12.nh.us/sau31/human-resources/index

Newmarket Police Department Is Hiring Police Officers

"Serving the People with Pride & Integrity"
Accelerated Hiring Process for Certified Officers!
The Newmarket Police Department is currently seeking dedicated and professional individuals to join our team as Police Officers. We are committed to serving our community with pride and integrity and offer a supportive and progressive work environment.

Pay Rates:

- Non-Certified: $33.06 per hour
- Certified Officers: $35.09 - $41.56 per hour
  - An additional 5% pay increase will take effect in July.
- Detail Rate: $65 per hour
  - Increasing to $67 per hour in July.

Benefits Include:

- Up to 3 weeks paid vacation for certified officers, increasing with longevity.
- 4 on / 3 off work schedule.
- Comprehensive healthcare and benefits package with buy-out options.
- Modern equipment, including load-bearing vests and individual patrol rifles.

To Apply:
Interested candidates are encouraged to submit their resumes to SOBRIEN@NEWMARKETNH.GOV.
Join the Newmarket Police Department and make a difference in your community!

