Weekly Updates From the NH State House

Interested in understanding how decisions made in Concord impact our state? State Representative Toni Weinstein, who represents Newmarket, shares a weekly update from her perspective at the State House.

Her newsletter, covering legislative activities and decisions that affect residents across New Hampshire, has recently moved to the Substack platform. If you'd like to follow state-level news from a representative's viewpoint, you can find her updates here:

Wiggin Farm Boardwalk Now Open! Help Needed for Final Cleanup

Great news! Work on the Wiggin Farm boardwalk is nearly complete, and it is now open for public use.

While the boardwalk is ready for visitors, we have a few minor finishing touches remaining. We also need to clean up and dispose of the old bridge materials.

Volunteers Needed: We could use some help with the cleanup and disposal task next week (April 14th-18th). If you are available and willing to assist, please contact the Conservation Commission at Conservation-Chair@newmarketnh.gov.

300 Years

Newmarket 300

invites you to join the

300 Club

In 2027 we will celebrate 300 years of Newmarket being a separate parish! To help fund our upcoming celebration, Newmarket 300 is forming the "300 Club".

This is limited to the first 300 donors (businesses, organizations, or individuals) who make a tax-deductible contribution of $300.

Benefits include:

- the members-only "300" logo pin.
- listing in the book Portraits of Newmarket: 103 People, Places and Things (Deadline: 12/31/25).
- quarterly e-newsletter keeping you apprised of events.
- advance purchase of commemoratives and event tickets.
- special recognition during the "300" Parade.

Yes — I want to be one of the 300!
