The Navy's BlueTIDE Challenge: Protecting Undersea Infrastructure

The Naval Undersea Warfare Center Division Newport (NUWC Newport), in collaboration with 401 Tech Bridge, the Office of Naval Research, and the Naval Agility - Tech Bridge Network, is calling on innovators to help safeguard vital undersea infrastructure.

The BlueTIDE Prize Challenge invites small businesses and academic teams to develop cutting-edge technologies for monitoring and protecting these critical assets. This multi-phase competition provides a unique opportunity to work on real-world naval challenges.
