SCAM ALERT!

NH Attorney General Formella warns of a rise in lottery and sweepstakes scams targeting residents, especially older adults. Scammers claim you've won, but require upfront "fees" (often thousands of dollars!) paid via wire transfer, Bitcoin, or gift cards. Remember:

- You must ENTER to win.
- Legitimate contests NEVER require payment to claim prizes.
- PCH never calls in advance.
- NEVER give money or info to unsolicited contacts.
- Verify legitimacy by independently researching contact info.

Report scams to your local police, the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Bureau (603-271-3641), and the Bureau of Adult and Aging Services (1-800-949-0470). https://www.doj.nh.gov/consumer/complaints/index.htm
