Part-Time Social Media Intern
With Street Stewards

streetstewards.com

Position: Social Media Intern (Part-Time)
Hours: 12-20 hours per week; can accommodate school credit requirements
Length: Minimum commitment 3-6 months, longer availability is a plus
Location: This position is both remote and in person to attend events in San Diego County. Mileage for as needed event-specific travel reimbursed following current state reimbursement rates

About Street Stewards: Since 2018, Street Stewards has been dedicated to keeping San Diego neighborhoods clean and litter-free through the “adopt-a-block” program and monthly group cleanups. Our organization aims to create an even wider network of volunteers across San Diego County to adopt a block and exhibit environmental stewardship and pride.

What you’ll do: Street Stewards is looking for a creative and motivated Social Media Intern to help grow our presence on local social media channels. This role is perfect for a student or early-career professional looking to gain hands-on experience in social media marketing, nonprofit outreach, and community engagement.

Your Responsibilities:

- Create and schedule engaging content for Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter
- Assist in developing social media campaigns to promote events and volunteer opportunities
- Engage with the community through comments, messages, and shares
- Monitor social media trends and suggest strategies for growth
- Track engagement and provide insights on performance
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Passion for environmental and community-driven initiatives
- Ability to both work independently and collaboratively and meet given deadlines
- Professional, approachable, and friendly demeanor

- Willingness to learn and take initiative
- Strong understanding of social media platforms and engagement practices (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, TikTok a plus)
- Basic graphic design (e.g. Canva, Adobe, or similar tools)
- Strong computer skills, including Google Suite, Microsoft Suite (Word, Excel), Zoom, etc.

What you'll gain:

- Hands-on experience with a grassroots nonprofit organization
- Work closely with a driven, dedicated, and passionate team of board members, volunteers, and community members
- Flexible work schedule
- Opportunity to build a portfolio of work and experience
- Networking with community leaders, volunteers, collaborative partners, and more
- School credit, if needed

How to Apply:

If you're excited and passionate about making a difference, we'd love to hear from you! Apply by sending your resume and a brief cover letter to Scott Horst at ScottH@margarets.com.
