Kayla Dunlap Director of Government & Public Affairs

Kayla Dunlap is the Director of Government & Public Affairs at the Port of Grays Harbor. She joined the Port in 2009 and is responsible for the Port's communications, outreach, and government relations.

Kayla double-majored in History and Political Science at St. Martin's University, where she also completed her master's in business administration. She serves on the Pacific Northwest Waterways Association Executive Committee, currently serving as Treasurer of the organization. Kayla is committed to and passionate about creating economic development opportunities and jobs for Grays Harbor.

A proud born-and-raised Harborite, Kayla lives outside of Aberdeen with her husband, two children and pets. She enjoys spending time with her family, watching her kids play sports, and traveling.
