

Daybreak Pregnancy Resource

Linda Mitchell

Director

The Daybreak Pregnancy Center (DBPRC) in Vienna, Georgia has a powerful motto. ‘This may be your first Pregnancy-this is not ours.’

For more than twelve years, we have walked alongside women to help with decisions that are not only emotional and oftentimes complicated, but very difficult to make.

Regardless of the challenge, considering all your options is always the best way to be empowered for the choice that’s right for you and your family.

Contacting the DBPRC , Pregnancy Resource Center was certainly the right choice for Amelia, a recent client of DBPRC. And that decision led to more right choices.

‘This is the strongest establishment I’ve ever been to,’ she says. The peace, the concern about your well-being and health throughout your pregnancy by the staff is heart-warming.

She also has a message for others walking in her shoes. ‘You will feel comfortable,’ she says. ‘They offer parenting classes and numerous programs for women in need. The staff are professional and they love what they do! I highly recommend! And please come openminded.

DBPRC empowers women and men with resources to best make important decisions about family planning.*

‘We know how unplanned pregnancy can make you feel anxious, scared, even trapped,’ says Director Linda Mitchell.

‘Our center has trained associates who want to listen and provide a caring and supportive environment. In the 12 plus years, we’ve impacted hundreds of lives, and each one is unique. We’re here, We’re open. Come see us.’

*The DBPRC Pregnancy Resource Center helps empower women and men with resources to best make decisions about family planning. They help answer the tough questions such as, how do I tell my family, how does adoption actually work, what option is right for me and my baby, where does the baby’s father fit into all of this, what steps do I need to take to ensure a good future for me and my baby, and more. Our Theme is “Loving Life.”

That is what we are all about, Loving Life Loving the Life of the woman who is scared and uncertain, Loving the Life that has been knit together in the mother’s womb, Loving the Life of the dad who says he is not ready to be a father, loving the life of the student who feels pressure to make certain choices, loving the life of the volunteer who weekly gives their time, and so on.

As a staff and Board, we are loving the life God has given us and the work we get to do each day.

We covet your prayers and look forward to serving the Lord together!

“I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus.” 1 Corinthians 1:4

Every day, many people volunteer their time for this ministry. Whether you have volunteered through a church group, organization, or as individual, we take this opportunity to say THANK YOU! This ministry is not possible without your willing hearts, time, talents and dedication.

We have been blessed to have our new volunteer this month and want to say welcome to:

Joyce Williams:

I have been blessed beyond measure! Fifty years with one God had in place for me and now three children, three in loves, 12 grandchildren and two great grands. Joyce wants to give back her time to serve Daybreaks clients in a unique and necessary way, God called her to work mightily in her service to the glory to His name. I knew I had to find Somewhere to volunteer where life is valued and celebrated. Daybreak was A perfect match for me and I’ve found a real place to be able to help families as well as volunteer with amazing people who are like minded. Every time I enter the doors at the Center feel blessed to be there and see what God has in store for me.”!!

Interning at Daybreak is a Joy!!!!

Natalee Starnes

My name is Natalee Starnes, in my short time interning at Daybreak Care Center, I have seen lives changed and improved because of this center. I chose to intern at DBPRC because they offer many services that I feel passionate about. I believe this Center is a great place for people who are experiencing events such as unplanned pregnancies. When clients are offered such compassionate care, they get a sense of hope. In a few short weeks, I have learned what it truly takes to run a nonprofit organization and the importance of advocacy for alternatives to abortion. I have learned that all walks of life need help during crisis and DBPRC serves each client with dignity. Because of this DBPRC will always be very dear to me. I am currently under Eckerd Connects-Paxon, Georgia -West Work Force Region, a student of their social work program. Through my experience at DBPRC, I hope to gain skills to help future clients. In the years to follow, I hope to work with a foster care and adoption agency to place children in loving homes.

We, Daybreak believe elective abortion is the defining moral issue of our time. We have dedicated ourselves to equipping pro-life ambassadors to speak intelligently and redemptively to the justice of abortion.” Our God goes before us in battle: The Lord will fight for you , and you have only to be silent (Exodus14:34)

Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord! Thank you, for your prayers, your support, your willingness to stand with us!
