

James P. Valin, MD,
Executive Vice President, Chief Clinical Officer

J.P. Valin, MD, FACP, joined SCL Health as President of Medical Group and Provider Services in September 2016, and assumed the role of Executive Vice President and Chief Clinical Officer in February 2018.

As Chief Clinical Officer, Dr. Valin is responsible for integrating and providing direction for all clinical activity across the continuum. All clinical programs have been aligned under Dr. Valin including the SCL Health Medical Group, acute care clinical operations, Quality, Safety and Risk, and Medical Informatics to maximize Clinical Integration and Alignment.

In his role, Dr. Valin provides strategic and operational leadership to employed providers and Medical Group associates in each region as well as the system-level Provider Services associates and support services. He manages the full scope of the Medical Group and Provider Services division to achieve a thriving delivery structure, successful performance improvement standards, a highly attractive practice environment for providers, and improved clinical quality, population health and financial outcomes.

Dr. Valin joined SCL Health from Banner Health in Greeley, Colorado, where he served in various leadership roles for 10 years. He is a graduate of Georgetown University and New York Medical College, and completed his Internal Medicine Residency at New York Presbyterian - Weill Cornell in New York City. Dr. Valin is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians.

Updated 9-1-20