St. Germain's Glass Welcomes Dan Paulson as General Manager

Duluth, Minnesota: St. Germain's Glass proudly announces the appointment of Dan Paulson as its new General Manager. St. Germain's Glass is a part of the Brin Glass family of companies.

With a robust background in the glazing industry, Paulson's established track record positions him to steer St. Germain's Glass into further growth. His market knowledge and people leadership experience align with the company's current goals, and Brin's future trajectory.

Assuming the local role of General Manager June 3, 2024, Paulson joins the senior leadership team of Brin Glass Company, reporting to Ryan Torgerson, executive vice president. St Germain's is one of four locations under the Brin umbrella. Sister companies include Brin Glass in Minneapolis, Heartland Glass near St Cloud and Northwestern Glass Fab in Fridley. Together the Brin family of companies provide architectural glass and aluminum solutions covering the breadth of design, fabrication, distribution, installation, and service.

"I am thrilled to welcome Dan Paulson to our team at St. Germain's Glass," said Torgerson. "Dan brings exceptional skills and extensive leadership experience, perfectly in sync with our company's core values and strategic vision I'm confident he will contribute vitally as part of the leadership cohort within the Brin family of companies."

With a wealth of expertise in the glass industry, Paulson brings insights in leadership, sales & estimating, project management, and operations to his new role.

About St. Germain's Glass & Brin Glass Company: St. Germain's, the oldest of the Brin family of companies, was established in 1891. Brin Glass Company, founded in 1912, has been a pioneering force in glass fabrication, installation, and service in the greater Minnesota and western Wisconsin region. With over a century of expertise, Brin boasts unparalleled knowledge and a skilled team of glass and glazing professionals ready for continued expansion. Whether for residential projects, commercial installations, or comprehensive maintenance, the Brin family of companies—including Brin Glass, Northwestern Glass Fab, Heartland Glass, and St. Germain's Glass Co—deliver a premium, quality-driven experience to its clients.

Contact Information

For media inquiries, please reach out to Kim Dodge, Brand Development Manager for Brin Glass Companies. Email: kdodge@bringlass.com