

We are excited to announce the selections for this year's PlayFest, Orcas Island's homegrown festival of 10-minute plays. You'll find the list below.

If you are interested in acting or directing, you can read through any of the scripts at the Orcas Island Library (just ask at the front desk).

Auditions will be held in late March or early April, stay tuned for details. If you're interested in directing please contact us (see email addresses below).

There will be six performances at the Grange, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday May 10, 11, 12 and May 17, 18, 19.

Please forward this email to anyone you think would be interested in directing, auditioning or helping with stage crew.
