

TITLE: Baroque Winds

ORGANIZATION: 2019 Salish Sea Early Music Festival

DATE: Saturday evening, April 27, 2019 at 7:00 PM

LOCATION: Orcas Adventist Fellowship Church

107 Enchanted Forest Road in Eastsound

ADMISSION: Suggested donation: $15, $20 or $25 (a free will offering),

18 & under free.

WEBSITE: www.salishseafestival.org/orcas

DESCRIPTION: The Salish Sea Early Music Festival presents "Baroque Winds" with recorder player Vicki Boeckman, baroque oboist Sand Dalton, baroque flutist Jeffrey Cohan, cellist Caroline Nicolas and harpsichordist Jonathan Oddie in this performance of rarely-heard chamber music from the 18th century for flute, recorder and oboe with cello and harpsichord. Chamber music by German, French and Italian composers Antonio Vivaldi, Joseph Bodin de Boismortier, Fortunato Riedel, Johann Joachim Quantz and Georg Philipp Telemann for a variety of instrumental combinations will be performed by specialists on early wind instruments, which are significantly different from their modern counterparts.