

Miles McCoy Talk: 80 Years with Wooden Boats

Friday, April 12, 7PM, Oddfellows Hall

--From Arthur Winer for Wooden Boat Society of The San Juan Islands--

Long-time Orcas Island resident Miles McCoy will present a slide show and talk on his eight decades of sailing and boating in wooden boats. An excellent story teller, Miles has selected his best photos from boating in local waters and beyond for what promises to be an interesting and entertaining evening, not to be missed. This event is at 7PM, April 12 at the Oddfellows Hall. Miles' talk is the Spring presentation of the Wooden Boat Society of the San Juan Islands. Free to all, donations appreciated.

The poster features a photograph of a white sailboat with a single mast and a large sail, sailing on the water. To the right of the sailboat is the logo for the Wooden Boat Society of The San Juans, which consists of a circular arrangement of three oars and a central vertical mast. Below the logo, the text "Presents" is followed by the name "Miles McCoy" in a large, bold, serif font, and "80 Years with Wooden Boats" in a slightly smaller, bold, serif font. At the bottom left, the date and time are listed as "April 12, 2019" and "7 PM", followed by the location "Oddfellows Hall". At the very bottom, the text "Donations Appreciated" is visible. To the right of the text, there is another photograph of a man, Miles McCoy, sitting on the deck of a sailboat, wearing a hat and shorts, with the ocean and sky in the background.
