Orcas Island Film Festival

Dear Film Lovers,

We hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! We continue to be grateful for the power of film and the rich stories from around the world.

As we all hunker down at home, we hope you consider supporting our virtual cinema. Every ticket purchase directly supports the Orcas Island Film Festival. We have a great library to choose from and new films added every week. Look for two exclusive Q & A's with filmmakers following the films.

Here's our new offerings for this week:

"Collective" - Director Alexander Nanau follows a crack team of investigators at the Romanian newspaper Gazeta Sporturilor as they try to uncover a vast health-care fraud that enriched moguls and politicians and led to the deaths of innocent citizens. With bonus Q & A.

"Zappa" - A brand new documentary film about the life and times of the brilliant and genuinely maverick musician Frank Zappa. With bonus Q & A

"NYICFF KID FLICKS TWO 2020-2021 " - This is part two of the New York International Children's Film Festival. A program of inspiring short films for ages 8+ from around the world.

If you are having trouble accessing the films, please reach out to us by responding to this email.

See all of the films listed below. You can also browse by genre to find dramas, documentaries, and even a horror film to watch in the comfort and safety of your home.

ZAPPA

Documentary | USA | 2020

There has yet to be a film about the life and times of the brilliant and genuinely maverick musician Frank Zappa. Director Alex Winter and his team have crafted a documentary from over a thousand hours of mostly unseen material from Zappa's personal vault. ZAPPA is an expansive and intimate portrait of an extraordinary artist who was also fully engaged with the turbulent politics of his day.

EXCLUSIVE BONUS: Immediately following the film we've included a live Zappa performance and backstage footage, released from the Zappa vaults for the first time. This bonus footage is exclusive to our virtual cinema engagement and not available anywhere else.

COLLECTIVE

Documentary | Romania | 2020

What begins as a seeming expose into the tragic Bucharest nightclub fire of 2015 gradually turns into something deeper and more shocking in this heartrending and revelatory documentary. "One of the greatest movies about journalism and the dark forces it confronts....plays like a gripping real-time thriller." - Indie Wire (closed captions available)

EXCLUSIVE BONUS: Immediately following the film there wil be a pre-recorded discussion between filmmaker Alexander Nanau and ROLLING STONE critic Kameron Austin Collins. This conversation is exclusive to virtual cinema engagements.

CITIZENS OF THE WORLD

Comedy | Italy | 2020

A light, frisky Italian comedy about three old geezers looking to leave Rome for a more fulfilling life.

Gianni Di Gregorio, Italy's laconic answer to Larry David, returns to the humanist comic territory of arthouse hits Mid-August Lunch and The Salt of Life with Citizens of the World, a warm and delightful reflection on life with characters you'll want to spend many more hours with long after the credits roll.

NYICFF Kid Flicks One keeps the dynamic of work and play lively with these tales and more from around the globe. Cat Lake City has you covered if you, like its loveable feline, feel like you just can't catch a break in this hilarious tale of a hard-won vacay. But if you're fortunate, you know that effort and fun can happily co-exist as they do in the short doc The Magic of Chess. Finally, meet another hard-worker who gets a little lost dawdling in the countryside in the beautifully hand-animated Boriya.

MONSOON

England/Vietnam | Romance/Drama

2020

Kit (Henry Golding), a young British Vietnamese man, returns to his birth country for the first time in over 30 years. He was just eight years old when he and his family escaped Saigon as 'boat refugees' after the Vietnam War. No longer familiar with this country and unable to speak his native language, Kit embarks on a personal journey from Saigon to Hanoi in search of a place to scatter his parents' ashes.
