

The Exchange invites you to a jewelry appraisal event with the dynamic Marena Heap, Chief Appraiser for Blue Nile, on Sunday, January 15th from 10-3pm. Verbal appraisals will be conducted upstairs in The Exchange's Art Gallery. You are invited to bring up to two pieces and participation is by donation.

Marena's impressive credentials include being a Gemological Institute of America (GIA) Gemologist Graduate, GIA Pearls Graduate, Certified Personal Property Appraiser, and National Association of Jewelry Appraisers member.

Marena will have her formal lab in place and can assess all kinds of jewelry, including vintage, antique, diamonds, gemstones, and costume. To participate, call 376-2126 (ask for Rinda McGarry) or email info@exchangeorcas.org.

If you have more than two pieces you'd like appraised, multi-piece private appraisals with Marena are also available Saturday, January 14th. Call or text Jen Vollmer at (360)472-9538 to schedule.
