

While they play throughout the west, Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, and Montana, it is a rare thing for hometown Orcas Island audiences to hear JP and the OK Rhythm Boys in performance in an intimate space. But on Saturday, October 15th at 7pm, JP, Gordon, and Anita present an evening of their signature music and fun in concert in the cozy tasting room of Orcas Island Winery.

JP and the OK Rhythm Boys will offer their usual wide range of songs and tunes on fiddle, guitar, bass, and vocals with a smattering of mandolin, ukulele, banjo, and, of course, musical saw (Anita promises to keep the saw away from the wine vats). Swing, fiddled-up hits of the 40s, 50s, and 60s, originals, sweet waltzes, lively hoe-downs, favorites old and new, you never know what might tickle their fancy, and yours. You can check them out at jpandtheokrhythmboys.com.

Tickets are $25, seating is very limited and advance purchase is required. The wine bar will also be open with Orcas Island Winery's delicious range of offerings available for purchase. To reserve your spot, simply write hello@orcasislandwinery.com.
