

GLOBAL MIGRATION with DR. JAMES LOUCKY @ the Library
Saturday October 5 @ 4pm

Worldwide over 65 million people have been displaced due to war, famine, persecution, violence, human rights violations, or environmental crisis.

Discover current world migration realities and associated U.S. policy. What are the humanitarian, economic, environmental, and political issues? How do we develop humane policies for the housing and care of refugees and migrants? James Loucky is Professor of anthropology at Western Washington University who has authored or edited publications on global migration. For more information visit the Library's website
