

Savannah Sipping Society opens next weekend at the Grange

After almost two years without any theater, The Actors Theater is reopening at the Grange with “Savannah Sipping Society” a laugh-out-loud comedy starring Dorrie Braun, Diane Craig, Suzanne Gropper and Melinda Milligan with cameo’s from DD Glaze and Annette Mazarrella. Savannah Sipping Society opens on September 3rd with seven performances (September 3rd, 4th, 5th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th) All performances will begin promptly at 7:30 pm. Savannah Sipping Society is directed by Doug Bechtel.

What is Savannah Sipping Society all about? Randa, played by Dorrie Braun, is struggling to cope with a surprise career derailment that, unfortunately, reveals that she has no life and no idea how to get one. Dot, played by Diane Craig, is still reeling from her husband’s recent demise and the loss of their plans for an idyllic retirement. Marlafaye, played by Melinda Milligan, a good ol’ Texas gal who has blasted into Savannah in the wake of losing her tom-cattin’ husband to a twenty-three-year-old dental hygienist. Also new to town is Jinx, played by Suzanne Gropper, a spunky ball of fire determined to get their lives on track while she over-looks the fact that she’s the one most in need of help. There will also be short cameo appearances by DD Glaze (first weekend) and Annette Mazarrella (second weekend).

The continued COVID problem has forced us to establish some additional rules: First, EVERYONE who attends MUST BE FULLY VACCINATED. Secondly, everyone will be required to WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES WHILE INSIDE THE BUILDING. We will do our best to provide separation between groups but that will depend on the attendance on any given night. More information is available at our website: www.orcasactors.org.

Tickets continue to be $10 and will be available at Darvill's Book Store, online at www.orcasactors.org and at the door.
