Jessi will discuss applying the principles of permaculture to creating gardens that support increased resilience.

Jessi Bloom is the author or co-author of three books, including the best-selling Practical Permaculture. She co-owns N.W. Bloom EcoLogical Services and is an award-winning ecological landscape designer. She is known as an innovator and leader in the field of permaculture, sustainable landscape design, construction and land management. Recognition and accolades for her work includes awards from the Washington State Department of Ecology, the American Horticultural Society, Pacific Horticulture magazine, and Sunset magazine. Jessi has built many popular display gardens at the Northwest Flower and Garden Show, winning Gold medals. She lives near Seattle with her three kids on their permaculture homestead, which is full of functional gardens and rescue animals.
