Beth Wood, a native Texan, now Oregonian is an award-winning song-writer, musician and poet.

“Ladder to the Light” was a finalist for the 2019

Oregon Book Awards - Stafford/Hall prize for poetry, and the winner of the 2019 Oregon Book Awards Readers’ Choice award.

She directs the Sisters Songwriting Academy, affiliated with the Sisters Folk Festival, hosts the Sunday morning Stage Celebration and has performed around the country as an instructor in Songwriting workshops, as a featured artist, as well as being a much sought-after house concert performer.

We are delighted to welcome Beth to Orcas, her first visit to the San Juan Islands! Her books and CD’s will be available for purchase and of course, autographing.

During her weekend on Orcas, she will also be performing with Ara Lee James on Saturday evening at The Orcas Island Grange - 7:30pm.

On Sunday, June 9th, she and Ara Lee James will conduct a Creativity, Song and Writing workshop: “Play More!” noon-4pm at a private residence.
