Join the conversation on What's Next: The Islands Economy at the 11th Annual EDC Economics Luncheon, held online on Wednesday, April 28th from 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., featuring economist Yoram Bauman and San Juan County Auditor Milene Henley. This year, participants are invited to “B.Y.O.L.” (bring your own lunch) to share a meal with other community members virtually.

*Economist
Yoram Bauman, PhD*

This year's topic is What's Next: The Islands Economy, a look at the past year in context with previous years, and an exploration of our economy to come. Economist Yoram Bauman, PhD, the world's only stand-up economist and co-author of the best-selling Cartoon Introduction to Economics book series, will explore the comedy within the tragedy of the past year's economy; San Juan County Auditor Milene Henley will narrow the focus of the exploration to local key economic indicators.
