

Dear Friends and Neighbors

We are excited to let you know about a concert we are doing at the ORCAS CENTER on FRIDAY DECEMBER 21ST at 7.30pm

We are calling it “Home for Christmas” and it is a blend of American Folk and a traditional English Christmas.

The Crow Valley String Band will be hosting, playing some new and some familiar tunes. Brograss will bring their brotherly harmonies to the stage with a bluegrass influence. Dave Zoeller will join the band for some songs, bringing his lilting voice and guitar skills to the mix and Rob Eagle will join Kaj for a soulful guitar duet.

To bring an English feel to the evening they will be joined by Rachel’s Dad, Bob Bishop, who sang formerly with the D’Oyly Carte Opera Company singing some seasonal favorites and Howard Barbour reading some well loved Christmas Stories.

Tiffany Loney rounds out the guests and will be dancing to live music from the band.

Just $10 gets you in the door to spend Winter Solstice evening with friends and community. Tickets are available through the Orcas Center www.orcascenter.org. Its only one night and tickets are already selling fast.

Jim, Rachel, Tashi and Kaj
Crow Valley String Band

Brograss
Brograss