

Position: Lead Bread Baker

Description: Established artisanal bread bakery (founded 1991) on Orcas Island, WA is seeking a serious, career-oriented baker to help carry on its tradition. This is a FT/year-round position available immediately to the right candidate. While we do have a repertoire of well-known bread and bakery products that we wish to continue, there is room for fresh perspective and new product development. The ideal candidate will possess a strong grasp of baking fundamentals including experience working with starters, various bread forms, and flour/grain types. Some experience with recipe cost analysis is a plus. Exemplary organization, attention to detail, commitment to quality, and leadership are necessities as our lead baker is expected to effectively train and manage an assistant baking staff. Temporary housing can be arranged if needed. Compensation is competitive and dependent upon experience.
