Come Watch With Us Wednesday! - Presidential Debate, 8:45 pm, Lounge

Viewing parties in the past few weeks have brought people together at UUCW to learn more about efforts during WWII by Unitarian's to assist in smuggling people out of war zones (Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War), the first two Presidential Candidate's Debates, and the Vice Presidential Candidate's Debate. Join us next Wednesday, October 19 @ 8:45 pm for the last Presidential Debate. Bring a snack to share if you like and we'll continue our game of "Presidential Debate Bingo"!

Looking for help with greeting -

Denise Darrigrand
denise.darrigrand@gmail.com

As you know, we sit at a table in the lobby and greet newcomers each Sunday. The process is basically that – you welcome them, ask them to fill out a nametag if they would like, and ask them to sign the clipboard when it comes around. If they have children with them, there are RE materials for you to give them. As I can't promise to be at church every Sunday I'm looking for a few people to staff the table on Sunday mornings. If you are interested please let me know and I will get back to you with more specifics. We are looking to grow our membership this year and a warm greeting for first timers goes a long way. Thank you!
