Responsive Reading We Remember, We Resist by A. Payson

In a world that asks us to move on, we choose to remember.

We remember, and in remembering, we resist.

For the millions lost in the Shoah, and for every people targeted by hatred.

We remember, and in remembering, we resist.

For the stories that were silenced, and the stories that survived.

We remember, and in remembering, we resist.

When violence is justified as “order,” and cruelty is disguised as “security.”

We remember, and in remembering, we resist.

When neighbors are turned into enemies, and fear becomes the law.

We remember, and in remembering, we resist.

May our memory be a lantern for all who walk in danger.

May our courage be a shield for all who stand alone.

All: We remember We resist. We choose love and life.
