CALL TO WORSHIP

Kevin Ross

One: God invites us to come—

All: And drink deeply of the wells of salvation.

One: God invites us to come –

All: And drink fully of the cup of celebration.

One: God invites us to come –

All: With thanksgiving and praise, but also with our inadequacy and need.

One: God invites us to come –

All: Seeking comfort for our sadness, seeking signs of joy.

One: God invites us to come—

All: That we may never thirst again.

HYMN

Songs of Thankfulness and Praise, 243

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

One: Let us join hearts and voices in affirming our Epiphany faith:

All: We believe in a bright and amazing God, who has been to the depths of despair on our behalf; who has risen in splendor and majesty; who decorates the universe with sparkling water, clear light, twinkling stars and sharp colors, over and over again.

We believe that Jesus is the light of the world; that God believes in us and trusts us, even though we make the same mistakes over and over again.

We commit ourselves to Jesus, to one another as sisters and brothers, and to the Maker's business in this world: love and laughter, peace and justice. Amen!

GOSPEL LESSON

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

GOSPEL RESPONSE

For the Word of God within us -

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
