

We Are Called to Be God's People, 580

1. We are called to be God's people, showing by our lives his grace,
One in heart and one in spirit, sign of hope for all the race.
Let us show how he has changed us, and remade us as his own,
Let us share our life together as we shall around his throne.
2. We are called to be God's servants, working in his world today;
Taking his own task upon us, all his sacred words obey.
Let us rise, then, to his summons, dedicate to him our all,
That we may be faithful servants, quick to answer now his call.
3. We are called to be God's prophets, speaking for the truth and right,
Standing firm for godly justice, bringing evil things to light.
Let us seek the courage needed, our high calling to fulfill,
That the world may know the blessing of the doing of God's will.

As We Gather at Your Table, 695

1. As we gather at your table,
As we listen to your word,
Help us know, O God, your presence;
Let our hearts and minds be stirred.
Nourish us with sacred story
Till we claim it as our own;
Teach us through this holy banquet
How to make Love's victory known.
2. Turn our worship into witness
In the sacrament of life;
Send us forth to love and serve you,
Bringing peace where there is strife.
Give us, Christ, your great compassion
To forgive as you forgave;
May we still behold your image
In the world you died to save.

3. Gracious Spirit, help us summon
Other guests to share that feast
Where triumphant Love will welcome
Those who had been last and least.
There no more will envy blind us
Nor will pride our peace destroy,
As we join with saints and angels
To repeat the sounding joy.

Now Let Us from This Table Rise, 715

1. Now let us from this table rise, renewed in body, mind, and soul;
With Christ we die and rise again, his selfless love has made us whole.
2. With minds alert, upheld by grace, to spread the Word in speech and deed,
We follow in the steps of Christ, at one with all in hope and need.
3. To fill each human house with love, it is the sacrament of care;
The work that Christ began to do we humbly pledge ourselves to share.
4. Then give us grace, Companion God, to choose again the pilgrim way;
And help us to accept with joy the challenge of tomorrow's day.
