care talks

CARE at SARC is introducing a new program series centering Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) Staff at UC San Diego. CARE Talks will facilitate dialogue and education around healthy relationships, healing connections, and community care.

CARE Talks will provide education and spaces of validation that focus on resilience and empowerment through identity.

Join us for CARE Talks: Women of Color & Healthy Relationships on Friday, December 4th, 2020 12:00-1:00pm visit https://tinyurl.com/caretalks to register.

*A closed space for woman-identified BIPOC staff of UC San Diego to discuss race, gender, relationships, and community.
