

Photo credit:
Erik Jepsen/UCSD Communications

FACULTY SPEAKER SERIES

Spring 2018 | Presented by the Chancellor's Associates Scholars Program

DR. CAROL PADDEN

*Dean, Division of Social Sciences
Professor, Department of Communication
Sanford I. Berman Endowed Chair &
Distinguished Professor*

Dr. Padden's areas of research are language, communication and culture. Dr. Padden has been involved in the study of sign language, particularly American Sign Language (ASL). In recent years, along with other scholars, she has had the opportunity to study a new sign language developing in social and cultural circumstances quite different from that of North America, where ASL is primarily used.

To learn more about
Professor Padden, click here.

UC San Diego
casp.ucsd.edu | (858) 534-8366

THURSDAY
APRIL 26, 2018

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Multipurpose Room (Student Services Center, 1st Floor)

Let us know you're coming:
bit.ly/CASPfacultySP18
[link is case sensitive]

OPEN TO EVERYONE!

Required attendance for CASP
2017 cohort students.

Questions: casp@ucsd.edu