

USC Public Service Weekend 2018

DEFENDING OUR COMMUNITIES

The Role of Social Justice in Public Service

Los Angeles is an exciting living and learning laboratory. This free 3 day conference will provide you with an educational experience in an urban city that is improving communities through innovation and social change. Our society currently faces challenges that call on a new generation of creative thinkers and doers to explore beyond the status quo. Learn how you can be a future change maker through public service. All majors welcome.
