

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

THE PUBLIC TRUST & PUBLIC POLICY

According to the Pew Research Center, just 18% of Americans say they trust government always or most of the time—a record low. And this cuts across partisan, ideological, generational, and racial lines. If the public doesn't trust its own government, can we honestly expect public policy to best serve the public? This free three-day conference will dive deep into how you—as citizens and future leaders—can revitalize public leadership through civic engagement. Learn from practitioners and experts in the importance of the role civic engagement plays in the development and implementation of good public policy. ALL MAJORS WELCOME!

THEMES

- EVOLUTION OF CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
- ENGAGING THE PUBLIC IN POLICY DEVELOPMENT
- RISKS AND REWARDS OF TECHNOLOGY IN CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
- HOW THE GOVERNMENT, THE PRIVATE SECTOR, AND THE NON PROFIT ARENA ALL PLAY CRUCIAL ROLES IN PROPERLY ENGAGING THE PUBLIC
- APPLYING TO GRADUATE SCHOOL

LOGISTICS

FRIDAY, JUNE 15 – JUNE 17
PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY
DRESCHER GRADUATE CAMPUS
24255 PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY
MALIBU, CALIFORNIA 90263

OUR PARTNERS

APPLY TODAY!

<https://goo.gl/81BUJD>

