

Resources for Graduate School for Undocumented Students

Organizations and Associations

Dream Bar Association: Led by undocumented law students and practitioners, the DBA's purpose is to provide a network for undocumented immigrants who are interested in pursuing a career in law, are pursuing a career in law or are practicing in this field.

Pre-Health Dreamers: Informally co-founded by three undocumented youth in the San Francisco Bay Area, Pre-Health Dreamers was formed out of the need for answers in their personal pursuits of higher education at the graduate and medical levels.

My Undocumented Life Blog: Publishes posts with tips for applying to and navigating graduate school.

Lists of Scholarships

E4FC: "Graduate Scholarship List"

My Undocumented Life blog: "Grad School Scholarships"

Pre-Health Dreamers: "PhD Scholarships List"

Films and Webinars

United We Dream Live Presents: Rad Grads - Undocumented Students in Grad School

Webinar with advice on applying to graduate school.

Dreamers to Doctors from Pre-Health Dreamers

Dreamers to Doctors is a short film that focuses on four undocumented youth who are aspiring to become health professionals. The film shares their immigration stories, their motivations for pursuing a career in the health profession, the barriers they have faced along their journeys, and the opportunities that exists.

Tips and Advice for Applying to Graduate School

E4FC's "Life After College: A Guide for Undocumented Students"

This guide covers topics including numerous types of graduate and professional school programs, paying for graduate school, getting internships, earning a living, and emotional health.

Perna Lal's Advice about Law School: "Undocumented Law Student? Tips for Surviving Law School From An Undocumented Law School Graduate"

Perna Lal is an Indo-Fijian American attorney who navigated law school as an undocumented student. Their post includes advice about how to pursue law school.

Pre-Health Dreamers' Health Career Pathways Chart for California

This chart explores the different health professions career pathways, namely Medicine, Nursing, Dentistry, and Pharmacy, outlining the institutional obstacles and opportunities at various stages of the journey.

University of California's Undocumented Student Resources: "Graduate School and Careers"

Information about how to apply to graduate schools at the UCs as an undocumented student