GLOBAL
METHODIST CHURCH

Financial Results Through May 31, 2026

The Global Methodist Church continues to experience strong financial health and faithful support from churches and individuals across the connection.

Through May 31, 2026, total revenue reached $3.58 million, exceeding budget expectations by approximately $593,000 (19.8%). Connectional Funding remains the primary source of support, with $3.35 million received year-to-date, reflecting the ongoing commitment of local churches to the mission and ministry of the GMC.

In addition to Connectional Funding, the denomination received $138,140 in direct contributions and benefited from $95,000 in investment and interest income during the first five months of the year.

Revenue Ahead of Prior Year

Compared to the same period in 2025, total revenue increased by $272,379, an 8.2% improvement. Connectional Funding receipts are approximately $142,000 higher than last year, while direct contributions have increased by more than $92,000.

Ministry Investments Continue

Year-to-date expenses totaled $2.19 million, reflecting significant investments in ministry, leadership development, global engagement, communications, conferences, and organizational infrastructure necessary to support a growing denomination.

Travel and meeting-related expenses have increased compared to 2025 as the church expands its global presence. Personnel costs have also increased as staffing continues to mature in support of the church's expanding ministry responsibilities.

Despite these investments, the GMC generated Net Operating Revenue of $1.39 million through May.

Strong Balance Sheet

The denomination remains in a strong financial position with:

- Total Assets: $13.57 million
- Total Liabilities: $1.39 million
- Total Net Assets: $12.18 million

Cash, cash equivalents, money market funds, and investment accounts provide substantial liquidity to support ongoing ministry initiatives and future commitments.

The Board-designated reserves continue to provide long-term stability, including funds designated for:

- General Conference preparation
- Operating reserves
- Ministerial Training Fund initiatives
- Investment income reserves

Overall Outlook

The financial outlook for 2026 remains positive. Revenue continues to exceed budget expectations, expenses remain within the denomination's overall financial capacity, and net assets provide a strong foundation for future ministry.

Most importantly, these results reflect the faithfulness of congregations, annual conferences, donors, and ministry partners who continue to invest in the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ and spreading scriptural holiness across the globe.

Thank you for your continued partnership and faithful stewardship.
