Scripture Reading

Mark 10:46-52

[Jesus and his disciples] came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.<sup>47</sup>When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"<sup>48</sup>Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"<sup>49</sup>Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you."<sup>50</sup>So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.<sup>51</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, me see again."<sup>52</sup>Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer (concluding with the Lord's Prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Brian's Nerdy Bible Notes (why we don't let Brian do the Children's Talk)

So, what is so special about Jericho?

Jericho is the oldest known continuously inhabited settlement on Earth. It was first settled sometime around 9000 BC, shortly after the last Ice Age. Numerous freshwater springs provide abundant water to the city even though it is located in the middle of the desert surrounding the Dead Sea.

Jericho was made famous in the Old Testament as the first city Canaanite city conquered by Joshua and the Israelites. Jericho lies on the western shore of the Jordan River and provided the Israelites with a staging area for their invasion of central Canaan.

In Jesus' day, Jericho was famous for three reasons. First it was the winter retreat for Herod the Great and the elite of Jerusalem. Although it is located only some 16 miles away from Jerusalem, Jerusalem sits atop a mountain range while Jericho is the lowest city on Earth. Second, Jericho was famous for its two exports: dates and balsam, a highly sought after perfume. Third, Jericho was the final stopping point for people travelling between the Galilee and Jerusalem. The normal straight line route was occupied by hostile Samaritans, so travelers from the North would walk down the Jordan River valley and then turn due west at Jericho walking up the long and uphill-all-the-way road to Jerusalem.

Mark is very specific about locating the exchange between Jesus and Bartimaeus on the way out of town, in other words by the exit that led to Jerusalem.

Why is this man's name significant?

Bartimaeus is a very odd name. It is a compound word from two different languages. "Bar" means "son of" in Aramaic, the common language of Jesus' day. So we have lots of Bar names like Barabbas. But the rest of the name is not Aramaic, it is Greek. Timaeus means the honored one. Mark emphasizes the point by translating it for his readers who may not have known that "Bar" meant "son of." The irony is that a blind man would have been viewed as somehow accursed in ancient Israel. Blindness was viewed as a punishment from God bestowed on someone or someone's descendants for their sin. So, a blind man named Bartimaeus or Timaeus for that matter would have been something of an oxymoron.

What is does it mean that Bartimaeus calls Jesus, "Son of David?"

"Son of David," is a messianic title that emphasizes the anticipated Messiah will be an heir to the Davidic Kings and restore the United Kingdom of Israel just like his ancestor David. Because the line of Davidic kings had ended during the Babylonian captivity, the hope for the return of the King had become much like a national legend by the first century. Bartimaeus is one of only two people in the Gospel of Mark to address Jesus with a Messianic title, the other being Peter.
