

THE CALL

Fairmont Presbyterian Church

December 2025/January 2026

Volume 80, Issue 10

Incarnation. It literally means “in the flesh”. Incarnation stands at the very center of our faith, our life, and our hope. The term points to the central mystery of our faith tradition that the ineffable, transcendent, ground of all being took on actual human life in and as one first century Galilean peasant. That was a scandalous claim then, and now. Even more scandalous are the dual consequences of that union – something of human embodied creatureliness is now a part of God and some part of God’s own life and being is now a part of us. Humanity has now been infected by God’s own life and being rather like a CRISPR virus, slowly rewriting the DNA of our very being from within. And that means that we do not yet know either the full meaning or impact of incarnation because it is not yet complete in us or in God. Our development and destiny have changed. Accordingly, Merry Christmas.

The Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem PA (that would be Palestinian Authority not Pennsylvania) is one of the oldest and most significant ancient churches. Under the high altar, pilgrims still carefully step down into the grotto (there are no railings). And there before reverent crowds, a silver star on the ground marking the spot of Christ’s birth in a cave venerated as the place of his infancy. As one of the holiest places in the Christian tradition, thousands come in reverent silence, or Tik Tok narrated selfies, to alternatively worship or add to bucket lists. Orthodox priests constantly push praying pilgrims back out the other side while berating vlogging influencers. Bedecked in crushed velvet, gilt, and jewels of questionable provenance, that silver star oddly resembles a bullseye directed from heaven towards earth.

Between the pomposity of religion and the kitschy decorations, the grotto of the nativity is an unlikely spot to remember and venerate Christ’s birth. The sheer tackiness of the ornamentation lit by yellowing compact fluorescent bulbs and the greasy patina of human breath and sweat on the walls bear honest witness to the human condition. Any other patch of ground may speak more of God’s presence on Earth than this grotto. And maybe, just maybe that is the point. God does not come to us in our beauty and perfection but in our messy, unkempt, ugliness. God comes to us not so much to celebrate our humanity, but rescue and redeem it. It is all divine comedy, actually incarnation is the supreme comedy – a tale of a lowly protagonist rising from bad fortune to good ending in reconciliation and celebration.

If we would be claimed for redemption and transformation it would need to be in our flesh -- fallen, fearful, and frayed -- not as idealized angels or digitized avatars, but simply as contingent creatures resident within a contingent creation. God puts up with much, even us, and moves in on the sleeper sofa. A child is born so that, if we choose, we may be as well. Merry Christmas.

- Brian

CHURCH FINANCES & STEWARDSHIP

Thank You! Thank you for your generous financial support throughout 2025. Because of your generosity we have been able to expand the array of our programs and ministries especially for younger people, make major improvements to our building, refurbish our organ, and expand our support to mission partners especially for families in need in, all while welcoming new members. All of it depends on your generous support. You are making Fairmont a great and thriving house of faith. Please remember that all 2025 contributions must be post marked or submitted by December 31. Thank you!

Progress in the 2026 financial stewardship campaign is encouraging as of mid-November, and we are closing in on our goal of fully funding our proposed budget of $744,529. The ultimate success of our 2026 Stewardship campaign depends on you. If you have already pledged for 2026, we sincerely thank you. If you have not yet done so, please pledge some amount to the mission of Fairmont. God has a plan for Fairmont, and we hope that you will pledge to help achieve it with your financial support! Statements of intended giving are available in the pews or in the church office.

What is Per Capita and why is it $54.66? The Presbyterian Church is a connectional church. That means that we share in mutual ministry and accountability with and for each other. One of the ways we do that is by “sharing” in the cost of the denomination. This is done through individual assessments based on the number of members in each church. These assessments, called “per capita,” are mandatory and are used to support the work of the General Assembly and the Synod. Those funds are obtained either from our general Fairmont revenues or from special offerings from individuals who wish to pay their share individually. The total per member assessment for 2026 is $54.66. That is the cost of being a member of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) denomination as opposed to the local congregation. If you would like to directly pay your share of our commitment to the greater church, the amount per member is $54.66.

FREE MONEY: Taxpayers over 73 years of age with an IRA or a 401K/403B accounts may transfer withdrawals (up to $100,000 per year) directly to Fairmont Presbyterian Church or other “qualified charitable organizations” and not pay tax on the distribution. Retirement savings accounts of various sorts (e.g., IRA’s and 401k’s) require individuals over 73 to annually make required minimum distributions or face significant tax penalties. Those distributions are then added to your taxable income, often boosting your tax bracket. But, if you direct those distributions in whole or in part to Fairmont or other charities, those funds do not count as taxable income at all regardless of whether you itemize your taxes or not. This transfer method can save you significant tax dollars. As always, consult with qualified advisors to help with tax planning, but using qualified charitable distributions may be an efficient way for you to support Fairmont!

CHURCH OFFICE CLOSED

The church office will be closed
December 24th–January 2nd for the Holiday’s.
All activities will not be meeting during this time except for Wednesday evening AA and Thursday evening NA meetings. We will still be receiving mail.
Thank you.
