Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Rev. Kelley Shin

Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave, you shattered the power of sin and death. We confess that we fail to trust and often remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death. We fail to follow you. Forgive us our ignorance, forgive us our cowardice, forgive us our sin, God of mercy. Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new, that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ and share it with all creation...(silent confession)...Amen.

Scripture Reading

Matthew 28:1-10

After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.² And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it.³ His appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow.⁴ For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men.⁵ But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified.⁶ He is not here, for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay.⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.”⁸ So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

Leader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon When Death Breaks Rev. Brian Maguire

Hymn 233 The Day of Resurrection Lancashire

1 The day of resurrection!
Earth, tell it out abroad,
the Passover of gladness,
the Passover of God.
From death to life eternal,
from sin's dominion free,
our Christ has brought us over
with hymns of victory.
2 Let hearts be purged of evil
that we may see aright
the Lord in rays eternal
of resurrection light,
and listening to his accents,
may hear, so calm and plain,
his own "All hail!" and hearing,
may raise the victor strain.
3 Now let the heavens be joyful;
let earth its song begin;
the round world keep high triumph
and all that is therein.
Let all things seen and unseen
their notes of gladness blend,
for Christ the Lord has risen,
our joy that has no end.

Affirmation of Faith The Apostles' Creed page 35 of hymnal

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below; Praise God above, Ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayers of the People (concluding with the Lord's Prayer-page 35 of hymnal)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn 238

Thine Is the Glory

Judas Maccabeus

1 Thine is the glory,
risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory
thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment
rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave-clothes
where thy body lay.

Refrain:

Thine is the glory,
risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory
thou o'er death hast won.

2 Lo! Jesus meets us,
risen from the tomb;
lovingly he greets us,
scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness
hymns of triumph sing,
for the Lord now liveth;

death hath lost its sting. (Refrain)

3 No more we doubt thee,
glorious Prince of life!
Life is naught without thee;
aid us in our strife.
Make us more than conquerors
through thy deathless love;
bring us safe through Jordan
to thy home above. (Refrain)

Brian's Nerdy Bible Notes

Resurrection is not the phenomenon of dead people coming back to life. That is resuscitation, not resurrection. Resurrection is the phenomenon of dead people transformed into a new kind of life such that they will never die. Some people, like Lazarus and a Rabbi's daughter, are resuscitated in the New Testament. They were restored to their pre-mortem form of living and lived out the rest of their years in a normal fashion. Jesus however experienced something altogether different. Resurrection involves the complete transformation of one's life both physically and spiritually. After his resurrection, Jesus no longer follows the laws of physics in quite the same way. He now can pass effortlessly through matter and appears at a distance instantaneously. And at the same time, he can touch and be touched. He enjoys good food and companionship with his friends. His followers do not at first recognize him because he has changed. But as soon as he starts sharing fellowship with them, they immediately recognize and embrace him. Resurrection makes Jesus both familiarly the same and profoundly different.

Jesus did not invent the idea of resurrection. It is an old, old hope. In Jesus' day the Pharisees, as opposed to the Sadducees and the Temple officials, taught it as a core part of their beliefs. Orthodox Jews to this day hope and anticipate, as Christians do, the coming of the Messiah and the resurrection of the dead. We simply disagree on whether that same Messiah has been with us before.

Easter is simply that moment in time when an instant of our future erupted into what is now our past, circa a Sunday morning around 33 AD. Jesus' resurrection shows us what our resurrection will be like. If you want to know what life after life after death looks like, follow Jesus. Language cannot describe it. All I know is that we will finally and fully belong.

All cre - a - tion, join to say:
 Fought the fight, the bat - le won, Al - le - lu - ia!
 Where, O death, is now your sting? Al - le - lu - ia!
 Praise to you by both be given,

 Christ has o - pened par - a - dise. Al - le - lu - ia!
 Where your vic - to - ry, O grave? Al - le - lu - ia!
 Ris - en Christ, tri - um - phant now.

Originally printed as eleven four-line stanzas without alleluias, this Easter text was written during the first year following the author's life-changing conversion experience, yet it already shows his enduring emphasis on the theme of love. This lively Welsh tune sets it well.

JESUS CHRIST: RESURRECTION

233 The Day of Resurrection!

1 The day of res - ur - rec - tion! Earth, tell it out a - broad,
 2 Let hearts be purged of e - vil that we may see a - right
 3 Now let the heavens be joy - ful; let earth its song be - gin;

the Pass - o - ver of glad - ness, the Pass - o - ver of God.
 the Lord in rays e - ter - nal of res - ur - rec - tion light, the round world keep high tri - umph and all that is there - in.

From death to life e - ter - nal, from sin's do - min - ion free,

 Let all things seen and un - seen their notes of glad-ness blend,

our Christ has brought us o - ver with hymns of vic - to - ry.
 his own "All hail!" and hear - ing, may raise the vic - tor strain.
 for Christ the Lord has ris - en, our joy that has no end.

The roots of this English text come from a mid-8th century Greek hymn that continues to be used in Orthodox churches at the midnight Eucharist marking the beginning of Easter. The tune is named for the county in northwestern England where the composer was then an organist.

This Easter text, first in French and later in English, was written to fit the music, a chorus created for Handel's oratorio Joshua and moved to Judas Maccabeus in 1751. It grew widely popular following its use at the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 1948.
