Call to Worship (Psalm 46)

Leader: There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

People: God is in the midst of the people; they shall not be moved; God will help them when the morning dawns.

Leader: The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

People: Come, behold the works of the Lord; see what wonders he has brought on the earth.

Leader: Be still, and know that I am God! I am exalted among the nations. Come and let us worship our God who is with us.

Hymn 12

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

St. Denio

1 Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

2 Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might:
thy justice, like mountains high soaring above;
thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.

3 To all, life thou givest, to both great and small.
In all life thou livest, the true life of all.

We blossom and flourish like leaves on the tree,
then wither and perish; but naught changeth thee.

4 Thou reignest in glory; thou dwellest in light.
Thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight.
All praise we would render; O help us to see
'tis only the splendor of light hideth thee!

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Abiding God, you travel alongside your people through the changes and chances of this life, but we so often wander away to seek our own ends. You offer us truth and meaning in your embrace, yet we prefer our own pleasures. You invite us into communion, but we lose ourselves in alienation and separation. Forgive us our sin. Bridge our separation. Lead us back to your presence at the heart of our lives and from there lead us into your future alongside you every step of the way...(time for silent prayer)...Amen.

Scripture Reading

Exodus 40:16-19; 34-38

Moses did everything just as the Lord had commanded him. In the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up. Moses set up the tabernacle; he laid its bases and set up its frames and put in its poles and raised up its pillars, and he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent over it as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled upon it, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. Whenever the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out on each stage of their journey, but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day that it was taken up. For the cloud of the Lord was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel at each stage of their journey

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon

Growing Up

Rev. Brian Maguire

Hymn 816

If Thou but Trust in God to Guide Thee

Wer Nur Den Lieben Gott

1 If thou but trust in God to guide thee,
with hopeful heart through all thy ways,
God will give strength, whate'er betide thee,
to bear thee through the evil days.
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
builds on the rock that nought can move.

2 Only be still, and wait God's leisure
in cheerful hope, with heart content to take whate'er thy Keeper's pleasure and all-discerning love hath sent.
No doubt our inmost wants are clear to One who holds us always dear.

3 Sing, pray, and swerve not from God's ways,
but do thine own part faithfully.
Trust the rich promises of grace;
so shall they be fulfilled in thee.
God never yet forsook at need
the soul secured by trust indeed.

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer (concluding with the Lord's Prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Doxology      *Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, Ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

Invitation of Discipleship

We will not be passing the offering plates to collect tithes and offerings today. There is a basket by each exit door for the collection of tithes and offerings. (Loose coins go to Children and Youth Ministries.)

Anthem Is He Worthy Coleman Clark, soloist

Prayer of Discipleship

Hymn 331 God of the Ages, Whose Almighty Hand National Hymn

1 God of the ages, whose almighty hand
leads forth in beauty all the starry band
of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
our grateful songs before thy throne arise.

2 Thy love divine hath led us in the past.
In this free land by thee our lot is cast.
Be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay:
thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

3 From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
be thy strong arm our ever sure defense.
Thy true religion in our hearts increase.
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

4 Refresh thy people on their toilsome way.
Lead us from night to never-ending day.
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
and glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

Families step back in time at Jerusalem Marketplace, exploring traditions, food, and activities. Kids participate in the marketplace, sing catchy songs, play teamwork-building games, dig into Bible-times snacks, visit the Synagogue School, and collect Bible Memory Makers to remind them of God's Word. Visit www.fairmontchurch.org/vbs to register!

We still need volunteers to lead groups of children from station to station each morning, as well as leaders and assistants for some of our marketplace tents. Please see Loralei if you are able to help—VBS is our largest community outreach and educational program for children, but we need your help!

Brian's Nerdy Bible Notes: Did the Exodus Happen?

The Book of Exodus may be the most important book of the Hebrew Bible. It is simultaneously a book of history, theology, law, and national origins. It provides the underlying pattern for the rest of Israel's history and the themes that Jesus will embody in the New Testament. Moreover, it is a universal human story of liberation and relationship between God and humanity that honestly addresses human failings.

The Book of Exodus is about an event, the Exodus, a migration out of Egypt through the desert wilderness of Sinai and the Negev that lasted forty years. The actual Book of Exodus only recounts events from the first year of that journey. The Book of Numbers then picks up the narrative.

During the twentieth century, many scholars doubted whether any such migration from Egypt to Canaan occurred. In the past 25 years, an increasing number of scholars have concluded that there is a historical basis for the Exodus, although perhaps not involving as many people as the Book of Numbers suggests.

The historical window for the Exodus coincides with precisely with the breakdown of the late Bronze Age civilizations around the year 1187. Archeological records indicate a collapse of international trade, the disappearance of written records, the destruction of numerous city states, and declining economic activity around this time. What prompted the onset of this "Dark Age" nobody knows for certain. The most likely cause is a cascade failure initiated by sudden climactic change.

The consequence of this collapse is that it created a unique historical window when the Holy Land was not under the domination of the more powerful neighboring Egyptian or Mesopotamian Empires. Into this window, Israel emerged.

The other important lesson from archeology comes from comparing material culture. The new early Israelite communities in the central hills of Judea appear to have incorporated large populations of disaffected Canaanites fleeing from the Canaanite city states. In other words, a sizeable share of the people we would later call Israelites had ancestors who were once Canaanites. What held them together was not their genetic heritage tracing back to Abraham, but their commitment to live into a story of liberation and companionship with a liberating God leading them into a new, more egalitarian community. We call that commitment covenant.

The opening line of this hymn was inspired by the three divine attributes listed in 1 Timothy 1:17 (King James Version), and it continues by considering how God's life exceeds our own finite existence. The text is well set to a Welsh melody shaped by many three-note units.

This hymn is a testimony of experience. The original seven-stanza German text (based on Psalm 55:22) and its tune were created by the author/composer at the age of twenty in thanksgiving for finding employment many weeks after being left almost penniless following a robbery.

THE LIFE OF THE NATIONS

331 God of the Ages, Whose Almighty Hand

This hymn was generated by 19th-century centennial celebrations: the words by the Declaration of Independence and the music by the adoption of the United States Constitution. Despite these origins, no specific nation is mentioned in this hymn of praise and prayer for peace.
