Gabrielle (Gigi) Gaul, MBA

Assistant Director for Graduate Admissions at Goldey-Beacom College

Program Manager for Community Engagement at Great Dames, Inc.

Gabrielle (Gigi) Gaul is the Assistant Director of Graduate Admissions at Goldey-Beacom College, where she helps recent graduates and working professionals pursue advanced education and lifelong learning. Through partnerships with campus departments, community organizations, and prospective student communities, she connects individuals with opportunities for personal and professional growth through higher education. Her higher education career has also included roles in online learning, academic support, and teaching as an adjunct assistant professor.

Beyond higher education, Gigi is committed to advancing women, girls, and emerging professionals across Delaware. As Program Manager for Community Engagement with Great Dames, Inc., she leads initiatives that deepen member engagement and bring women together to share wisdom, strengthen their leadership, and transform collective purpose into community impact. She is a Founder with the Fund for Women at the Delaware Community Foundation, where she previously served on its board, supporting communications and young founder engagement opportunities. She is also a member of the Delaware ACE Women’s Network, an organization dedicated to advancing women in higher education, and a recipient of its Rising Star Award.

Gigi earned both her bachelor’s and MBA with a concentration in Organizational Leadership from Wilmington University. She is a graduate of the University of Delaware Women's Leadership Initiative Certificate Program and the Leadership Delaware Fellowship Program. She resides in Newark, Delaware, with her family and dog, Viva.
