

Frequently Asked Questions

Answers to common questions about Virtual Church Media, our ministry resources, broadcasts, outreach, prayer, giving, and communications.

---

What is Virtual Church Media?

Virtual Church Media (VCM) is a Christian media ministry founded to share biblical teaching, encouragement, prayer, and Gospel-centered resources through television, digital platforms, mobile resources, and outreach ministries.

Who leads Virtual Church Media?

Virtual Church Media is led by Dr. David and Joanna Hairabedian, who teach, minister, and create faith-based resources designed to help people grow in their relationship with God and live out their purpose.

Where can I watch Virtual Church Media programs?

VCM programming is distributed through television and digital media outlets, including the ministry's online platforms. Current broadcasts, featured teachings, and viewing information can be found at VirtualChurchMedia.com.

What kinds of teachings and resources does VCM offer?

VCM offers Bible teaching, faith-building videos, podcasts, e-books, audiobooks, devotional resources, prayer content, and practical Christian discipleship materials for individuals, families, churches, and ministry groups.

Does Virtual Church Media have a mobile app?

Yes. VCM offers digital ministry resources through its mobile platform, including teachings, audio and written resources, podcasts, and Bible-centered content. Visit VirtualChurchMedia.com for current access information.

How is Virtual Church Media reaching prisoners?

Through its prison ministry outreach, VCM provides Christian teaching and discipleship resources for incarcerated men and women. Ministry materials are currently available in English and Spanish on electronic tablet systems serving correctional facilities across the United States.

Can I request prayer?

Yes. Prayer is an important part of the ministry. You may submit a prayer request through VirtualChurchMedia.com or through the contact options provided in VCM communications.

Can churches or ministries use VCM resources?

Many VCM resources are designed to encourage personal and group spiritual growth. If you would like to use, reproduce, distribute, or license VCM content for a church, ministry, prison outreach, or other organization, please contact VCM for permission and availability.

How can I support Virtual Church Media?

You can support VCM through prayer, sharing ministry resources, participating in outreach initiatives, and giving financially. Donation information and current ministry projects are available at VirtualChurchMedia.com.

Are donations tax-deductible?

Tax treatment depends on the specific organization receiving the donation and applicable law. Please refer to the donation receipt and giving page for details, and consult your tax adviser regarding your individual circumstances.

How do I subscribe to email updates?

You can subscribe through VirtualChurchMedia.com or through a VCM sign-up form. Email updates may include ministry news, teachings, broadcasts, events, prayer opportunities, and outreach reports.

How do I unsubscribe from emails?

Every promotional email sent through VCM's email service includes an unsubscribe link. You may use that link at any time to stop receiving promotional emails.

Does VCM sell or rent my personal information?

VCM does not sell or rent personal information to third parties. For more details about how information is collected, used, and protected, please review the Virtual Church Media Privacy Policy.

How can I contact Virtual Church Media?

Visit VirtualChurchMedia.com for the most current contact information, ministry updates, resources, and ways to connect with the ministry.

Still have a question?

Visit VirtualChurchMedia.com for current ministry information and contact options.