

“Good Times” IX InterPlay Summer Camp

with CathyAnn Beaty, Ingrid Hurlen and Eric Chappelle

Celebrating 25 Years of InterPlay in Seattle!

CathyAnn Beaty, MDiv, is a master InterPlay leader, dancer and visual artist. She has been working with ongoing groups of therapists, clergy and other helping professionals for the past 12 years through her business SoulPlay and has developed new approaches to healing based both on her professional and personal experience. She leads the InterPlay Life Practice Program, The InterPlay Way, performance workshops, couples classes, mentors leaders in training and directs SoulPlay Performance Ensemble. She has taught InterPlay in India, Australia and around the United States.

Ingrid Hurlen is a Certified InterPlay Leader (since 1997) and Creative Dance teacher/workshop facilitator. With InterPlay Seattle founder, Krista Harris, she co-led two InterPlay leadership programs and co-led two Life Practice Programs with Sharie Bowman. After re-locating to New Mexico, she teaches parent/child and preschool creative dance classes at the Railyard Performance Center, Dragonfly School and The Santa Fe School for the Arts and Sciences. She is also an experienced dance and theater performer. She is currently cultivating a small group of InterPlayers in Santa Fe. Ingrid works with improvisational dance musician Eric Chappelle to create meaningful and fun InterPlay experiences.

Eric Chappelle is a musician and composer who has worked in dance and theater for over 35 years. His series of Music for Creative Dance CD's are used by dance educators worldwide. As a dance accompanist, he provides a variety of musical textures to enhance the participants' experience. He plays electric and acoustic violin and mandolin.

Our Five Basic Birthrights....

to move, to have our voice, to tell our story, to connect with community and to be!
