Dear Delivery Guys,

Thank you guys for delivering packages to the people in quarantine. The delivery guys are very helpful in this pandemic. Because it is not safe to go to stores you guys deliver the stuff we order.

You guys are awesome.

Dear firefighter, thank you for fighting the fires this year. Thank you for risking your life. I hope you are doing ok. I wish that the fires were done so you can go home and rest. Thank you for all you have done.

Dear Doctors,

Thank you for being so courageous and going to help all those sick people. I am so thankful that we have people like you. I even did my narrative story about you. One out of many reasons you're courageous is you are risking your life to save others. Thank you, stay safe.

Love, Analisia
