

We admit this is an extraordinary year
and your students are still living their extraordinary lives.
With your help, this yearbook will include
every one of those stories

We have reserved a spot for YOUR child and want to fill the space with 2 pictures that highlight their accomplishments this year. It can be something they've done in the classroom, in the community, or on the athletic field. We want to see the Bar Mitzvah, the new Judo belt, the perfect dunk in the driveway. Do you have a budding baker? A Minecraft master? A sublime songwriter? Their lives are more vibrant than Zoom meetings. Just follow the directions below.

Buy your yearbook

If your Roy Cloud student is in K – 7, upload 2 pictures of your child through our secure Herff Jones eShare site and write the text in the “description” field (no more than 40 words). If your photos are on your phone, just download the HJeShare app to your mobile device and use the code “RC2021” to upload directly from there. Samples are below:

Filler text goes here and can be up to 40 words long. It should talk about the key events that happened to the student this year and two pictures can be included. It doesn't need to be signed by parents.	Tim Hong What a year! Sand champions with Nate, Patrol Leader in Scouts, first time water skiing, and handling online learning with a great sense of humor. 	Mark Honeywell  For the 8th grade students filler text goes here and can be up to 50 words long. It should talk about the events that happened to the student this year and two pictures can be included. It doesn't need to be signed by parents. One picture is the baby/toddler pic.
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

If your Roy Cloud student is in grade 8, upload 2 current pictures and the traditional baby/toddler photo through our secure Herff Jones eShare site. Write your text in the “description” field in no more than 50 words. If your photos are on your phone, just download the HJeShare app to your mobile device and use the code “RC2021” to upload directly from there. A sample is below:

Adrianna Rodriguez For the 8th grade students filler text goes here and can be up to 50 words long. It should talk about the events that happened to the student this year and two pictures can be included. It doesn't need to be signed by parents. One picture is the baby/toddler pic.	Ethan Kekoa You've always had a big personality and this year you tackled big things! A 50-mile hike, making the travel baseball team, and putting in over 100 hours of volunteer work with church. High school is just the next step as you grow and set new goals.
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------