

8th Grade Revolutionary Battle Haikus

Matthew W.

accidental shots
many hours of bloodshed
British won battle

Cameron A.

Traveling at night
Colonists spying behind
Battling at dawn

Vincent V.

Seven-hundred men
Eight dead ten injured wounded
Stand ground at all costs

Robbie A.

Weapons have been found
Redcoats march to colonists
Shots are fired from both

Leonidas S.

Redcoats march toward British wrecks Americans
Redcoats march away

Ben S.

In the early morn.
Here comes a wave of crimson.
And a battle won.

Veeda S.

Redcoats destroy guns
Minutemen die protecting
A revolution!

Luke B.

British march Onward
Meet Colonist at North Bridge
They send Brits Running

Zoe Z.

The British coming
Town raided, red, will bridge stand?
Colonists win fight

Evan U.

Lots of soldier men
Don't shoot unless fired upon
Fight for liberty

Aditya B.

Marching up the hill
Fighting for their fair city
Their cause prevailed

Lauren T.

Cannons and huge sleds
Stolen from a british fort
Seized the victory

Omer B.

Through ocean, to land
Does the cycle seem to end?
Through tears, blood, and vain?

Jaime P.

The cannons and the muskets fire
We must retreat, said someone, no said the general

Chris B

British Invasion
Americans outnumbered
Washington's retreat

Alek T.

Shots and boots are loud
Men falling like leaves in wind
The redcoats have won.

Emily C.

Hopeless man march on
A single pep talk converts
The end of the fight

Safra S.

Dripping cold muskets
May be too bleak to be true
They are the last chance.

Parsa S.

Upon arrival
The British were greeted by their worst nightmare, loss.

Kiera C.

A battle occurs
British and Americans
The Americans win

Vanessa O.

The war is not over
For we got you by surprise
Victory or death

Nick C.

The guns wouldn't shoot
All the Hessians were asleep
Washington has won

Elizabeth V.

The battle arrives
Red coats blue coats, Jersey field
Freedom proves its worth

Jennifer O.

Meandering thoughts
A Germain, blurry guns chase
Above the powder.

Adriana C.

Set up winter camp
Shortage of food and clothing
Out came the strong troops

Edvin S.

At the cold valley, were Washington's men are,
fighting the cold winter.

Ali Y.

Pennsylvania camp
Rest and practice for soldiers Defeat British

Matthew D.

The British running
The Colonists came to them
Colonists won it

Yoan R.

Their cries heard at night,
Retreat! Retreat! Yelled the Brits,
Across the Hudson.

Paula N.

Deadly humid heat
British to American
June the twenty eight

Alexandra D.

Meandering thoughts
A few, british slipped across
In spite of the night

Danna G-M.

redcoats rang out
A thousand five hundred died.
British won the Battle

Bailey D.

Savannah, Georgia
North and South Carolina Defeated British

Roman P.

A terrible fight
Soldiers, fighting for their cause
New country is born

Melina M-L.

Rising to Attack
Fast like a Fox In The Night
Putting Down a Bite

Isella G.

A new plan was formed
A sleepy Virginia town
Never saw coming

Rebecca N.

A flag has been raised
All the firing has stopped
The British have lost

Kyleah G.

The end of a war
The siege of a redbacks base
They are all watching

Charles L.

British Lose Battle
Treaty of Paris is signed
Influences France

Grace G.

Ends tying the start
United States v Brits lark
To begin three parts

Ariella J.

End of War Freedom
Democracy Created
U.S. Powerful