November 13 to December 24

featuring A Portrait of Jesus by Joseph F. Girzone

Advent calls us to prepare the way of the Lord into our hearts. But who is the Jesus we are preparing for? What are the truths about Jesus that are presented to us in the Gospels? What must his contemporaries have known about Him? What did people see in Jesus as He walked down the street? How did He approach others, and what did those people take away from meeting Him? And what do His actions tell us about how we can live our lives today? The answers to all these questions will come as we read A Portrait of Jesus by Joseph F. Girzone.

How it Works

Register now at Signup Genius to receive weekly updates, suggested reading pages, and reflection questions. The book is available on Amazon with used copies starting at $1.44! If the computer is not your friend, you can sign up by calling Deacon Andy Neu at 773-779-1166 x242, or emailing at aneu@stbarnabasparish.org. A google doc is being created for those who wish to share their thoughts in a public forum. There are no meetings to attend, however for those who are interested, we will gather in-person shortly after Christmas to share our thoughts on what we have read.

About the Author

Joseph Francis Girzone (1930-2015), sometimes known as the "Joshua Priest", was an American Catholic priest, writer, and international speaker, known most notably as the author of the Joshua series of novels. In 1995 he established the Joshua Foundation, an organization dedicated to making Jesus better known throughout the world.
