

The Color of Law

A Forgotten History of How Our Government Segregated America

Conversation with Richard Rothstein

Thursday, February 28, 2019

Registration and Lunch: 11:00am

Conversation: 11:30am-1:00pm

La Sierra University Zapara School of Business

4500 Riverwalk Parkway – Riverside, CA 92505

De jure segregation – the laws and policy decisions passed by local, state, and federal governments – promoted residential discriminatory patterns that continue to this day. Discuss how this history played out in our local areas and consider how we will address its legacy considering the housing affordability crisis, gentrification, the 2018 passage of Assembly Bill 686 Housing Discrimination: Affirmatively Further Fair Housing, and the American Planning Association Policy Guide on Social Equity and Inclusive Growth.

Students: $5

APA Members: $15 (pending CM credit)

Non-APA Members: $20

Registration fee includes lunch

Mr. Rothstein will be signing books – purchase at the event or bring your own copy.

Visit www.IES-APA.org to Register

A Joint Presentation

American Planning Association
California Chapter
Inland Empire Section

American Planning Association
California Chapter
Orange Section